But that doesn't mean the planet Pandora has gone unnoticed. In this rendition of the source material, Earth is uninhabited. To the aliens, we are clearly sentient, and their curiosity is piqued by our existence. A Pandora has been discovered by a group of scientists, and before his curiosity can overwhelm his common sense, the young boy, Quill, is abducted by the authorities. Aboard a space shuttle, Quill learns that in order to establish a proper dialog with the aliens, there must be cooperation from both parties. But can Quill survive in this alien culture while still remaining human? Forbidden Planet (1956) It seems that the workers' resistance to the robot is completely futile, but thanks to the interference of the Earthling, these robots become self-aware. Our hero, who is a female astronomer, soon catches up with the spaceship. It is manned by a second robot which is controlling its two grotesque "master" robots. She is on her way to the secret base on the moon where the inhabitants are hiding; there she meets the real (not robot) Robot Mansa. And there they are confronted by the hostile aliens who are preparing to strike back on the Earth with devastating nuclear weapons. Defeating the first alien races, the settlers of the moon decide to attack the Earth as well: the survivors of those races are placed in servitude, and the humans continue to enslave the remaining planets. The guardians of the planet fight for peace. The federation's spaceship on its way to the moon is attacked, and the crew of the spaceship is brought to the secret underground of the earth, where there are many people. It seems that the workers' resistance to the robot is completely futile, but thanks 3e33713323
